Private Law 95-2
95th Congress

An Act

For the relief of Tri-State Motor Transit Company.

June 27, 1977

[H.R. 3314]

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized and directed to pay, out of any money in the Treasury not otherwise appropriated, to the Tri-State Motor Transit Company of Joplin, Missouri, the sum of $1,725.60 in full satisfaction of its claims against the Department of the Army for transportation of a load of explosives to Fort Wolters, Texas, in May 1968. Such claim was presented too late for payment due to administrative delays by the Department of the Army in processing a Certificate in Lieu of Lost Government Bill of Lading despite diligent efforts to obtain such certificate by the Tri-State Motor Transit Company.

Tri-State Motor
Transit Co.,
Joplin, Mo.

SEC. 2. Not more than 10 per centum of an amount equal to the sum appropriated by this Act shall be, directly or indirectly, paid to or received by any attorney in connection with the claim referred to in the first section of this Act. Any person violating this section shall be fined not more than $1,000.

Approved June 27, 1977.
